1809 Squatters List

REGISTER OF APPLICATIONS AND PERMISSIONS

IN MADISON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI TERRITORY

This is not a list of land patents. Thomas Freeman was acting as Registrar to take applications from squatters desiring permission to remain on the land they occupied in Madison county until land sales were held in August 1809 in Nashville. The squatter made application, paid a small fee of six shillings, and Freeman registered them.

Government surveyor Thomas Freeman had, on his own, negotiated an agreement between the Indians and the United States in which squatters would be removed from Indian land ... this in exchange for the land lying between the Elk River and the then triangle-shaped Madison county. Fulfilling the agreement, Federal troops removed 284 families.

This explains why Freeman made the Jan. 1809 list. These were the only whites who could legally remain prior to the land sales in Nashville. These squatters were probably allowed to stay until such time as they either gathered their crops or purchased the land legally in August of that year.

Freeman wrote, "About 30 more applications are made of which Permissions are not yet granted which will amount to very nearly the whole of the settlers in the country entitled to Permission to remain."

To quote Margaret Cowart in her book Old Land Records of Madison County, "permission was granted them to remain as "tenants at will" on their lands with rights to purchase at auction at a Public Land Sale. ... Less than half of the men who made application appear in the Tract Book."

The original source of the information below was recorded in a ledger that was located in Nashville, Tennessee. Nashville was the first land office for Madison County, Mississippi Territory. The ledger, now lost, was partially copied by Mrs. Kathleen Paul Jones of New Market, Alabama in 1925. This data is taken from Valley Leaves Vol. 4 and 5 - a yearbook of the Tennessee Valley Genealogical Society.
